Description

This Porsche 911 Turbo perfectly blends iconic design with everyday usability, offering an exceptional driving experience for those who appreciate both performance and refinement. Powered by a 3.6L flat-six engine delivering 480 HP, this sports car provides thrilling acceleration and precise handling, enhanced by a differential lock and advanced stability control system for maximum confidence on the road.

The interior features a sophisticated anthracite leather cabin with 4 seats, combining sportiness with comfort. Electrically adjustable sports seats with heating ensure an ideal driving position in all conditions, while high-quality materials create a premium atmosphere throughout.

Equipped with a strong set of features for both comfort and convenience, including:

- Automatic climate control
- Integrated navigation system
- Hands-free connectivity
- Cruise control
- Front and rear parking sensors
- ISOFIX child seat anchors

On the exterior, the vehicle stands out with stylish alloy wheels and powerful xenon headlights, delivering both presence and visibility.

This Porsche 911 Turbo is the perfect combination of luxury, performance, and everyday practicality, making it an ideal choice for enthusiasts who want it all.
